Senior Erin Haggerty Wins Local Fashion Competition

Scotch Plains, NJ, January 12, 2010 – Senior Erin Haggerty of North Plainfield has been selected as The Philadelphia Art Institute winner for The Art Institute’s Passion for Fashion National Competition. This achievement has secured Erin a $3,000 scholarship to The Philadelphia Art Institute and placed her in the national competition where she will compete with winners from 40 other Art Institutes across the United States and Canada for various scholarship awards and a VIP trip to the New York City Fashion week.

Erin’s entry, called “Dazzled Living”, was submitted for the Fashion Merchandising and Marketing Competition and included a detailed store layout plan and retail magazine marketing strategy.
