

Quality education in a faith based environment

Contact: Meredith LaCorte
908-889-1600

Junior Sean Siburn Receives Optimist Club Youth Volunteer Award

Scotch Plains, NJ, June 3, 2010 – Westfield resident and Union Catholic junior Sean Siburn has been selected as the 2010 recipient of the Karen Oros Youth Volunteer Award presented by The Optimist Club of Westfield. The award has been presented for the last 13 years to a Westfield junior or senior who has distinguished himself or herself through volunteer service to the community. Sean is a member of the Big Brother/Big Sister Program and a Student Ambassador. He is a three sport varsity athlete and a member of the National Honor Society. He also served as President of the junior class. One of his greatest volunteer accomplishments at Union Catholic has been his role as the Founder/President of REACH (Raising Educated Awareness for the Causes of HIV). The club raises awareness about the causes of HIV and provides assistance and support to the AIDS Foundation for Children located in Newark, NJ. Co-chairs of the Award Committee Trudy Silverman and Cathy Salomon state, “(Sean) embodies the spirit upon which our organization was built and we are pleased to recognize his accomplishments and contributions to the community.”